A medical exam is needed for foreign nationals who:

- want to stay in Canada for more than 6 months and have lived in one or more designated countries or territories (<http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/medical/dcl.asp>) for more than six months in the past year or;
- intend to work in one of the following jobs:
 - health sciences worker
 - clinical laboratory worker
 - patient attendant in nursing or geriatric homes
 - medical student admitted to Canada to attend university
 - medical elective and physician on short term assignment
 - teacher of primary or secondary schools or other teachers of small children
 - domestics worker, someone who gives in-home care to children, the elderly and the disabled
 - day nursery worker

If you fit into one of these categories, you need to get a medical exam.

Will you be getting a medical exam before submitting your application? Sending medical results, if required, as part of your application package will speed up the processing of your application.

For a medical exam, you must see a physician on Canada's list of Panel Physicians (<http://www.cic.gc.ca/dmp-md/medical.aspx>)
